ert is to be part of the All-American Festival throughout the week. The chorus and symphony will perform the epic "Magnificat" by Bach and the 20th work by Walton, "Belshazzar."

WILL go on sale at the first three Inter-sorority General assemblies. Cards No. 1 will be sold at Lowell Benson, administrator to Dr. Crawford, head of the Music conductor of the concert.

and members of the party started working on the tour and concert ago. The 300 voices chorus includes members: Oratorie Choir, the Women's Choruses, A Cappella Choir.

Concert soloists include Sharon King, soprano, Burbank, Calif.; Sheila Sorensen, mezzo-soprano, Salt Lake City; Marilyn Stanley, contralto, Heber, Utah; Jack Morris, tenor, Provo; and Roy Samuelson, bass-baritone, Moss, Nev.

THE BACH cantata is an exultant song of praise in which Mary expresses her elation upon learning she will become the mother of the Savior. The Walton composition taken from Daniel, Isaiah and Psalms, deals with the grandest of Biblical last words of Babylon and tells of the handwriting on the wall that foretold his kingdom's doom.

Special instrumentation — a complete brass choir and special percussion section — recreates through music and scenes and atmosphere of the two works. The Symphonic Orchestra and special brass group from the Concert Band include a total of 100 instrumentalists performing in the concert.

Rolapp, Parsons, Nelson, Webb, Barber Win Elections

Rich Rolapp rang up 3,208 votes to top Will Whittle with 2,815 by the margin of 393 votes.

Bob Webb (3,119) beat Kent Charles Brown (2,814) for the social vice president's post.

DAVE BARBER (3,687) came one vote short of scoring an even 500 ballots over Ronald M. Peterson (2,188) to secure the student relations vice presidency.

Phyllis Nelson (3,296) topped Jim Tryon (2,581) to win the office and white sweater of the culture vice president.

Bob Parsons, a write-in candidate in the primaries, worked hard to get reelected to take the name, vice's office away from Douglas Wm. Morrison to the score of 2,993 to 2,634.

GRADUATE officers are Don Marthins (311) for president over Near de Gaston (254); Rita Wilson (472) was uncontested for vice president. Walter Mehr, sole write-in candidate for secretary who accumulated more than the required 15 votes, won by a landslide of 1,000. With only two names running, neither was eliminated. Dan Jorgenson got 345 votes. Jackson Pemberton took 120.

In the senior class it was R. J. Duley (800) over John Hardin (671) for president, Julie White (803) topping Dale C. Hilton (636) for the vice presidency, Arlene Pleper (1,295) unopposed for secretary, and senators Jim Kirk (915), Bob Lee (803), R. Lynn Ovn (759) and Don L. Jones (788) were uncontested candidates. Mary Kay Rogers (617), Eileen Grix (512), Glen A. Dolberg (473), and Robert J. Drake (452).

The highest participating class was next year's seniors keeping the lead they have held in primaries and finals. They had 1,650 voting, 61.4 per cent.

The participating class that had the lowest participation was the first day where they trailed the sophomores to come up with 38 per cent.

The sophomores lost second place to make third with a respectable 51.9 per cent.

Surprisingly, the room where they have been since the primaries, are the graduates with 19 per cent participation from their class.

Elections Chairman Bev McKnight confessed herself baffled at the low second-day voting.

The four who will work together to determine student body activities during the next year are seen together immediately after they were announced as winning candidates at Friday's Inaugural Ball. They are L. r., Dave Barber, vice-president student relations; Bob Parsons, vice-president finance; Phyllis Nelson, vice-president culture and Bob Webb, vice-president social activities.

With the glow of victory still on his face, Rich Rolapp looked ahead to 1963-64 as BYU studentbody president.

J. Gray Band Will Play At Atlantis Prom

Jerry Gray and his Band of Devils will be playing at the Junior Prom April 19 and 20.

APPEARING in the East Gym of the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse, the band will be featured in an ocean setting as a part of the prom's theme "Atlantis."

Mr. Gray is the composer of "A String of Pearls" and "Pennsylvania 6-5000" among other numbers. He is known as one of the nation's top composers, arrangers and orchestra leaders.

The band will be the first to play his own band and did the score for numbers like "Sobbin' Choo," and "Begin the Beguine" for Artie Shaw and his band.

Later, working for Glenn Miller, he scored "Chattanooga Choo Choo," "Moonlight Cocktails," and "Elmer's Tune."

BORN IN NEW YORK, he was a child prodigy, an accomplished violinist at seven, and a professional performer at 12. Before he was out of his teens he organized his own dance band.

During his career he has recorded for several record companies and has written 100 songs and arrangements for 12 sides being recorded for Liberty records to be released as an album called "Moods of Gray."

Monday Forum Assembly Slates Experienced Actor

Hans Conried, motion picture, TV and radio star will be this week's forum speaker. He will speak at 10 a.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse as part of the activities connected with the Fine Arts Festival.

Mr. Conried spent a year playing second leads in support of the late John Barrymore in Shakespearean plays.
